

Understanding How We Are Compensated for Financial Services

Edward Jones Visa® Debit Card

What is the Edward Jones Visa® debit card?

The Edward Jones Visa® debit card enables you to access certain funds held in your Edward Jones Money Market Fund or in the Insured Bank Deposit Program. Charges and withdrawals using this card are debited from your account. For more information, please see <https://www.edwardjones.com/disclosures/account-features-terms/saving-spending-borrowing/index.html>.

How are we paid for our services?

Edward Jones receives ongoing payments of up to 26 cents per transaction from use of the debit card.

How is your financial advisor compensated?

Your financial advisor does not receive any direct compensation for debit card usage.
