

Edward Jones Inforce Contract Service Disclosure

Edward D. Jones & Co., L.P. (“Edward Jones”) is a registered broker-dealer and investment advisor in the United States and is wholly owned by the Jones Financial Companies, L.L.L.P. (“JFC”). Edward Jones has entered into inforce contract service agreements with certain insurance companies, including all of the issuers of fixed and variable annuities available for purchase in your Select Account, to maintain technology and provide other administrative services in support of certain issued and outstanding insurance contracts. We receive payments for providing these services.

We want you to understand the receipt of these payments creates a conflict of interest in the form of an additional financial incentive and benefit to us, our financial advisors and equity owners in connection with these contracts. For the year ended Dec. 31, 2025, Edward Jones earned $63.2 million in inforce contract service payments, which represented approximately 0.4% of the total revenue for JFC and its affiliates.

Inforce contracts are defined as previously sold insurance policies with Edward Jones identified as the agent/broker of record. Edward Jones agrees to maintain technology and provide other administrative services in support of this existing business.

This support may include facilitating communication between the insurance company and Edward Jones’ operation and service support personnel; receiving and storing contract descriptions and other contract information from the insurance company; maintaining and using the systems and processes necessary to facilitate certain client transactions; and retaining the necessary operational staff to provide support to Edward Jones’ financial advisors to support clients with insurance contracts.

In exchange for the support outlined above, insurance companies generally pay Edward Jones up to 25 basis points (.25%) of total invested assets in certain inforce annuity contracts annually. For example, if an annuity contract had a value of $10,000, Edward Jones would be paid $25 by the insurance company. If you own multiple insurance contracts where we have an inforce contract service agreement, we will receive payment for each individual contract.

Edward Jones receives inforce contract service payments from American General Life, John Hancock, Lincoln National, Nationwide, Pacific Life, Protective Life, Prudential, Transamerica, and USAA.

For additional information on a particular variable annuity contract’s payment and compensation practices, please review the prospectus and statement of additional information. Investors should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses of the variable annuity contract before investing. A prospectus containing this and other information can be obtained from your local Edward Jones financial advisor and should be read carefully before investing.

This page is intentionally left blank.